

Southern Buh

Rafting on the Southern Buh river (5 days)

Southern Buh is the third biggest river in Ukraine, which flows through the central and southern regions through the zones of steppe and forest-steppe. The warm climate of Pobuzhzhya, diversity of flora and fauna, interesting historic-architectural and archeological monuments and depravity of civilization - all these will make your leisure here unforgettable! Sun-scorched earth that remembers Cossack horses' hooves knocking, burnt grass and fragrance of a variety of herbs excite the imagination of travelers and extremely beautiful dawns and sunsets enchant everyone who's traveling here.

On your way you can also watch the so called “rybalochky” – small birds, which are protected in Ukraine and included into the Red Book. Evening show performed by local crickets, crackling of fire, water splashes and ...guitar – all these will be just for you.
